Withdrawal

In case of a middle of the school year withdrawal, you must give notice on or before the 1st of the last month that the child will attend school. A full tuition payment along with any prior unpaid tuition payments that were due till the 1st of that last that month, will be due. Furthermore, if the withdrawal notice is not received before the 1st of the month, an additional tuition payment will be due. For a new school year, you must submit a withdrawal notice by April 1st to avoid responsibility for the April 1st, and May 1st tuition payments. Furthermore, for a new school year, if you withdraw after July 1st, you will also be responsible for an additional tuition payment as well as the book use fee. The application fee, enrollment fee, the book use fee and the tuition payments already made are non-refundable regardless of the reason or timing of the student's change of program, withdrawal or termination. No refunds will be given for absence from school regardless of the reason or timing. When parents withdraw, they also forfeit the spot for the rest of the school year. The protocol for changing any part of the program is the same as for withdrawal and is only allowed if a spot is available in the target program. The withdrawal notice must be submitted via email to admin@championschool.org.

Termination

Champion School has the right to terminate any student's enrollment at any time for any reason, if Champion School decides it is in the best interest of the school and/or the student. Refund of tuition/fees will be prorated based on the number of school days enrolled. Champion School can suspend or terminate a student for violation of Champion's policies and procedures, poor academic performance, failing to make tuition payments on time and severe misbehavior. No refund of tuition will be given if a child is terminated from the school for cause.
